

MARK ELLIOTT

New Release!

AMERICAN ROAD

“More eclectic than electric, American Road is an acoustically charged, high powered collection of smart songs and irresistible charm”

*-Ken Kettlewell
(The Alternate Music Press)*

The seeds for Mark Elliott’s fourth album, “American Road” were planted years ago with the interest of legendary singer – songwriter Tom Paxton. Tom helped Mark secure a publishing agreement with Cherry Lane Music in Nashville. Mark went on to be a staff writer for some of Nashville’s best publishing houses, including Sony-Tree Music Publishing.

As a singer-songwriter Mark has won honors At songwriter festivals from Florida to California, including winning the prestigious Kerrville New Folk Award.

\ Mark uses Elixir Strings exclusively*

615-353-9094* 8552 Cub Creek Rd. Nashville, TN 37209
www.markelliottmusic.com * mark@markelliottmusic.com

A CUB CREEK RECORDS RELEASE

RADIO RELEASE DATE

January 25, 2005

SUGGESTED CUTS

- American Road
- From The Top of the Hill
- Old Berle Jones

WHY ADD THIS CD?

- Hopefully, because you just plain like it!
- Title track duet with Jonell Mosser called "One of the greatest singers in the world" by famed producer Don Was
- Powerful and poignant lyrics – easy to fit into a variety of “theme-shows”
- Artist is well immersed in the marketplace, on the web and touring nationally
- Mark’s previous CD “My Great Escape” (with a duet with Tom Paxton) was played on over 200 stations. It garnered a Top 70 ranking on the Americana charts, with the #2 single, “She Rode Horses”

CCR-1967c
UPC 6259894263
Retail: $15.00
Folk/Americana

